SUMMARY

4th year TE who has been the primary starter for MIA the past 2 seasons. Versatile piece who has been lined up split out, in the slot, in a 3 point stance or as an H in the backfield. Has adequate frame and good athletic ability for the position. Has a quick first step off the ball and uses his hands to keep LBs from pressing him. Is able to stretch the field vertically either working the seams or outside the numbers. Uses his athleticism and foot speed to create separation at the top of his stem. Is a natural pass catcher, showing the ability to adjust to the football, as well as track the deep ball. Can make first man miss in space and runs with power in the open field. Is a willing blocker in the run game who will not shy away from contact using proper pad level and technique. Has the foot speed to work laterally showing the ability to Zone block and work to the second level. Plays with a good base and balance when blocking in space. Gets out of his stance quick in pass pro with a good kick slide forcing the rusher to get wide. Lacks the ideal form for LOS blocking and will struggle against a strong bull rush, especially in the 5 and 7 step passing game. His hands can get wide when blocking levels or in space. Is prone to allowing the pocket to collapse if play is extended. Overall, a versatile piece that can align in multiple positions and use his speed, quickness and comprehension of route running concepts to beat most LBs, safeties and nickels. A viable option to carry the football in short yardage downs. Should not be depended upon to be a stabilizing force in the run game due to his size.
